It is singular with what unanimity the people who stretch hemp in the South are colored. Probably white folks in that section do not commit any heinous crimes.

One of the large dry goods firms in Chicago has been prosecuted for not providing seats for its female clerks, as provided by law. It would be a good thing if some such prosecuting could be done here in Los Angeles.

In alluding to the fact that the car which bore Jeff Davis on his recent tour was labeled, "He was manacled for us," the Omaha Herald, remarks inappishly: "Yes, and it would have been a good thing if he had been muzzled too."

Whisky is in danger of losing its reputation as a sovereign remedy for snake-bites. It at last failed to save a little boy at Fresno. Probably the cold medical facts will show that whisky has raised more snakes than it has counteracted bites.

An item has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that a hotel is talked of in Florida, on St. Sebastian river, which with its grounds will cost $30,000,000. Since the New York Herald exposed the falsity of the glowing fables contained in the New York World's Florida edition, people are in a position to question whether there is any Sebastian river, and if so, whether there is any ground about it.

Blaine, of Maine, by his outspoken expressions on the Irish question, has enlisted the hostility of the English press, or a part of it. This shows that he hit home. If Mr. Blaine is called upon to make another Presidential campaign, he can dispense with the influence of the English press, and then be better off than he would be with its advocacy.

A circular sent out by Patrick Ford, editor of the Irish World, conveys the intelligence that the people along the coast of Galway, Mayo and Donegal are in a state of absolute destitution. "Whole communities are without food or fuel. Thousands of persons are almost in a state of nudity, numbers of young girls being thus forced to keep within doors, having been obliged to pawn the scanty clothing they had to purchase something to eat to preserve life."

As an illustration of rapid advancement in outside Los Angeles realty, a gentleman states that, last November, he was offered a tract of 17½ acres out Temple street for $2000, with an option from Saturday until Monday morning. It took him until Monday noon to make up his mind to buy it, and then he was too late, as it had already been disposed of for $3000. A few days ago the purchaser sold 10 acres from it for same trade for $7000. All this teaches that, when a man has a good bargain in hand in Los Angeles, he'd better not delay very long in closing it, as the tendency is upward.

Secretary Lamar and Commissioner Sparks are in for a keel-hauling at the hands of the Senate. There is not a question that those officers, whose functions are purely executive, perpetrated a most unprecedented and indefensible act of usurpation in issuing their order suspending the operation of the preemption laws. If, by their simple edict they can render laws operative or inoperative at will, what is the use of having a legislative branch of the Government at all? It is likely to prove a serious matter for Lamar and Sparks and may result in impeachment. A late telegram brings the information that the odious order has been rescinded.

The Santa Barbara Press is doing a good work in endeavoring to wake up the people of the Channel City to unanimity of action in the matter of helping along, by a shoulder-to-shoulder movement, the general municipal development. A high official of the Southern Pacific Company is quoted as saying that, if Santa Barbara would hold out sufficient inducements, his company would push the new road to rapid completion and build there a five hundred thousand dollar hotel and a hundred cottages, that "the company would make Santa Barbara." A bona fide proposition of that nature would be a good thing for Santa Barbara to catch on to. If there be any lingering trace of Rip Van Winkleism in that city by the sea, it's a good time to shake it off, and to reach out for a future of rapid growth and prosperity.

AMUSEMENTS.

Grand Opera House—The Painter's Wife was repeated last night, and, if possible, went more smoothly than on the opening evening. In their acting, the company has deepened the good impression already formed of their abilities. To-day the same play will be presented at the matinee and again, for the last time, this evening.

On Tuesday next M. B. Curtis in Sam'l of Posen.

Vienna Theater—Miss Isabel Morris opened at this place last night in Gilbert's Pygmalion and Galatea. Of the lady's performance in this charming play, notice has already been taken in these columns on the occasion of her recent appearance at the Opera House. The audience present last evening could hardly have proved sufficiently numerous to afford the necessary pecuniary inducement for running an opposition dramatic entertainment. The company will appear again to-night and to-morrow.

Convicted of Causing a Runaway.

A. Laumier, an elderly French gardener who resides on Sainsevain street, was tried yesterday before Justice Austin on a charge of misdemeanor. The old horticulturist was charged with having untied two young colts attached to a buggy, the property of M. T. Collins, thereby causing them to run away and smash the vehicle. Monsieur Laumier made a long statement in English that could be heard a block off, and brought the post to which the horses had been tied into the court room to prove that it was rotten and could not have held the horses, and denied that he had untied the horses (nearly but quite to the contrary. Mrs. Laumier declined a French interpreter with a cry smile because, said she, "I am Dutch, your Honor." The evidence for the prosecution was not in favor of Laumier, and the Court found him guilty of misdemeanor, setting the time of sentence for this afternoon.

DAN'L AND GROVER

Passing Pleasant Platitudes on Paper

ABOUT FINANCE, TARIFF AND REFORM.

Manning Tenders his Resignation in the Place of Which Cleveland Gives Him a Vacation.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The following self-explanatory correspondence is made public this evening:

WASHINGTON, May 20, 1886.—My Dear Sir: I have decided to place in your hands my resignation of the office which you did me the honor to ask me to accept fifteen months ago. My reasons for this decision are both public and personal. Since the partial recovery of my health has permitted me to reflect upon the demands of the public service to which I had given, perhaps too freely, all my strength, and upon the conditions of resuming my labors at your side, I have not for a moment questioned that mine be my present duty. The full recovery of my health is pronounced to be an affair of weeks; and a longer period of rest, especially during the hot months, is prescribed, or at least advised, as a prudent regimen hereafter. Compliance with this advice would not be practicable were I to resume now the general direction of the Treasury Department, even if abating something of the energy which it seemed needful to expend in the first year of my work, supervision at a distance would be more a hinderance than a help to the Active Secretary. But it is not befitting that a department of the government so difficult and so important, should be administered by a convalescent, studious of parrying its daily exactions, nor that the watchful control of its enormous influence or the direction of its official policies, even under your wise lead, should be attempted by any one concerned about husbanding his strength. The reforms in our fiscal policy which you have maintained, and which have been framed and commended in the wisdom of the legislative branch, are reforms necessary to our safety, binding in honor, obligatory in the traditions of Democracy, set down with promises in our state books. Our present tariff laws are a needless oppression, instead of an easy burden. Our currency is a chaos into which we pour from the forced purchases of one of the precious metals a mechanical increment under the coinage law, so ill judged and untimely that it hinders the opening of our mints to the natural and unlimited coinage of both metals and the free expansion of our gold and silver coin along with the growing needs of a mighty people. All our needed reforms in revenue might be collected by strictly revenue duties upon a few score of articles instead of by extravagant or prohibitory taxes nearly as many as 4000 articles. The mere machinery of the administration by its own mass and complexity breaks down and crushes out the enterprise it sustains or governs. Our paper currency than elsewhere exists might be had by a few lines of repealing and enacting legislation. Indeed, within the last three years of capable administration of the treasury and joined with the present suggestions and conduct of our foreign policy by the State Department. Under the operation of the currency laws and tariff laws now in force, which you and the Forty-ninth Congress were elected by the people to repeal and reform, the burdened industries of our country, are plunging headlong along a miry road toward forseen dangers. We talk of arbitrating our respective share of disaster, instead of knocking off our self-imposed fetters and releasing general prosperity. This is not in my deliberate jud. ment, a time when the President can delay to provide for, or afford to dispense with, an annual as well as titular head of the Treasury Department. The fiscal policy of the Federal Government in respect to all forms of taxation so pervasive, and a currency which is universal, cannot fail of being the chief factor in the national and individual well-being. Your duty, to which you have addressed yourself with such clear and unflinching purpose, the duty of Congress to amend its ways, and the laws which may yet be enacted for the guidance of the Treasury Department, will require that your full strength in their administration by an officer capable of full efficiency and unwearied circumspection.

Permit me, therefore, without hesitation to accept my temporary disability as a summons to stand aside and make way for one immediately capable of fulfilling every requirement of the public service.

Very respectfully yours,
DANIEL MANNING.

To the President.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, June 1, 1886.—My Dear Mr. Manning: I have received your letter in which your resignation is tendered as Secretary of the Treasury. The sentiments therein contained are entirely in keeping with the devotion to public duty and loyalty to the Government which have characterized your relations to the present administration. I am not surprised, though much distressed, by the concern which you evince for the correction of abuses and the inauguration of the reforms to which in your letter you allude, and which have been so often topics of our anxious consultations. I have hoped that the day was not far distant when the party to which we belong, influenced largely by faith and confidence in you and in the wisdom of your views, would be intrusted with the management of affairs, and led to more harmonious action upon the important questions with which you have had to deal. In considering your proposed resignation, I should be strongly inclined by my personal regard and the interest of your services to the country to beg you to, at once and entirely, abandon your inclination to relinquish your part of the arduous duty, but I am convinced that I should not do this act that in all I suggest and ask, I should have much at heart your welfare and safety. You have passed your resignation in my hands. My responsibility here beg me, and I know that the responsibility will be met and the wishes of the people of the land fully answered when I ask you to postpone for awhile any insistence upon the acceptance of your resignation, and that your final conclusion, thereon may be delayed until the effects of continued rest and freedom from official care upon your condition may be fully tested. I, therefore, earnestly request you to accept leave of absence until the first day of October next, when, if you desire it, the question of your resignation may be resumed, with perhaps better means of judging the facts and probabilities which should be considered in its determination. Hoping that you will consent to this suggestion, and trusting that your encouraging progress toward restoration to health may continue, I am faithfully your friend.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

To Hon. Dan'l. Manning, Secretary of the Treasury.

Secretary Manning has accepted the President's suggestion, and will allow his resignation to lie over until his return of absence will have expired. Assistant Secretary Fairchild has been requested to continue to act as Secretary until that time, and has consented to do so. Secretary and Mrs. Manning, accompanied by Mr. Joseph W. Miller, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Mrs. Miller, will leave Washington to-morrow afternoon for Hot Springs, Virginia.

The Latonia Races.

Latonia, Ky., June 4.—Weather lovely, track fair, attendance good.

One mile—Hottentot won; Jhill second; Eager third. Time 1:48.

One and one-eighth miles—Leman won; Waukesha second; Kansas third Time 1:59.

Three-quarters of a mile—Revenge won; Fedora Third second; Lead third Time 1:20. Dynamite, who also ran, fell on the far turn and was killed. Scott, the jockey, was not seriously hurt.

Five-eighths of a mile—Knobby won by one and a half lengths; Dunnybrook second; Linda Payne third. Time, 1:05

Ripple stakes for 3-year-olds, one and a fourth miles—Starters, Boaz, Master Pierce, Longslipper and Lady Longfellow. Longslipper led to the post turn, where Boaz took the lead and was two lengths in front at the half. On the far turn Murphy gave Master Pierce his head, and, quickly closing with Boaz, he was first under the wire by four lengths; Boaz second; Longslipper third. Time, 2:15.

Ten Thousand Dollars Stolen.

Cincinnati, O., June 4.—The Van Wert, O., National Bank received yesterday by the United States Express, from the Union National Bank, of this city, a package purporting to contain $10,000, but when opened it was found to be filled with cotton, pasteboard and railroad advertising bills. The package should have reached Van Wert on Wednesday. The delay of twenty-four hours in transit is not yet explained, but will doubtless give a clue to the robber.

Shot in a Quarrel.

Poonville, Ind., June 4—J. ho S. Gentry, while under the influence of liquor, got into an altercation with Dr. Agee yesterday afternoon and shot Gentry's throat. Agee died in five minutes.

JENNINGS,

The Ubiquitous, Makes his Daily Report about Cleveland.

Deer Park, Md., June 4.—The President has expressed himself to the effect that he is delighted with his visit here. The President and Mrs. Cleveland rose at about 9 o'clock. Shortly after the President, unaccompanied, strolled along the paths back of the cottage. At 10 o'clock breakfast was served. During the meal, Senator Henry G. Davis called at the cottage, and remained an hour. Subsequently the President took the fresh air on the porch. He was barebacked and wore slippers. He had been meditatively pacing up and down the porch, with his hands behind him, but a short while when Mrs. Cleveland appeared and walked by his side. She was dressed in a white morning wrapper, and had a light shawl of the same color thrown over her shoulders. A little later on the seated herself in a rocking chair, the President taking his place beside her. About 2 p. m., the President and his wife went on to Senator Davis' cottage to luncheon. There were no guests, the only participants being President and Mrs. Cleveland and the Senator's family. The discussion of the repast occupied about an hour, at the expiration of which the President and his wife returned to their cottage to dress for a drive. These regular drives will be a feature of their sojourn here.

The Wedding Cards.

Washington June J.—About a thousand cards, announcing the marriage of the President, were sent out from the White House to-day by mail, messengers and otherwise. The cards are exceedingly plain and simple and are engraved in heavy lines on full sheets of the finest note paper. They are as follows:

MR. GROVER CLEVELAND,
MISS FRANCES FOLSOM,
Married,
on Wednesday, June 2, 1886,
Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C.

These announcements were sent to members of the Cabinet, Justices of the Supreme Court, Senators and Representatives in Congress, the Diplomatic Corps, the Lieutenant General of the Army, Admiral of the Navy, and other officers in Washington and to personal friends of the President and Mrs. Cleveland in Albany and Buffalo.

SAN FRANCISCO.

The Charter Election Plan Probably Defeated.

San Francisco, June 4.—The Board of Election Commissioners met this afternoon to consider the resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors requesting them to call an election of fifteen freeholders to frame a new charter. Mayor Bartlett presided. City and County Attorney Love moved that the Secretary be instructed to notify the Board of Supervisors that it was the judgment of the Commissioners that it is not necessary to call a special charter election, and that the whole matter be indefinitely postponed. This motion was carried and the Board adjourned. This action postpones the prospect of a new charter until the question of issuing a proclamation for a general election comes up, and probably defeats it altogether.

Two Breweries Seized.

The Lyons brewery, owned by Leopold Pellonzy, and the New York brewery, owned by Behnken & Weigle, both at Haywards, Alameda county, were seized by revenue officers to-day, on charge of selling out more than the amount on the government books, and of stamping barrels with stamps already used.

A Cattle Company Incorporated.

The Arizona Land and Cattle Company was incorporated yesterday by R. H. Noon, C. M. Seeley, S. F. Thorn, C. L. McCoy and J. M. Allen. The capital stock is $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares.

Disorderly on Strikes and Boycotts.

Pittsburg, June 4.—In an interview on the results of the Cleveland convention, Powderly stated that everything he asked was granted. Said he: "We had no law to limit the indiscriminate use of the boycott, the enforcing into of ill-advised strikes. Now we have given to the Executive Committee or Board the power to intervene and ascertain the cause and effect of these moves before we sanction them. We reserve power to strike and boycott, because instances may arise when both are imperative, but they are a last resort and only to be adopted in extreme cases. There was no necessity of such strikes as the late outbreak in the south west.

The Maxwell Trial.

St. Louis, June 4.—At 9:30 to-night, Mr. Clover concluded the closing speech for the State in the Maxwell case, and a few minutes later the jury retired. At 11:15 Judge Wood appointed a bailiff Sheriff to the jury room to ascertain if the jury had agreed upon a verdict. On the return of the Deputy he whispered a few words to the Judge, whereupon the latter adjourned court until to-morrow morning. The fact that the jury were out nearly two hours without finding a verdict leads many to the belief they will fail to agree.

The Passenger Rate War.

Chicago, June 4.—As a result of the passenger war between the Rock Island, St. Paul and Northwestern, Atchison, Wilson, of the Chicago, St. Louis and Missouri River Passenger Association, issued a circular to-day authorizing the use of the cut rates, $7 to Kansas City and $12 to Denver, from Chicago to Council Bluffs, as a basis for constructing rates from Chicago to points beyond Omaha. Where the totals so obtained are lower than the prevailing rates through Kansas City and other Missouri River points, their use by such routes for through tickets from Chicago is authorized. This circular principally affects rates to points in Colorado, Utah and California.

To Test its Legality.

Salt Lake, U. T., June 4.—T. C. Halley has brought suit against D Webb and H. C. Wallace, Register and Receiver of the Land Office here, to compel them to ignore the recent order of Commissioner Sparks forbidding them to receive filings on desert-land and under the timber-culture law. He claims that the order is contrary to laws still in force. The suitors ask a mandamus from the Supreme Court of the Territory to compel the Register and Receiver to receive the filing according to law. Other suits of the same nature, with damages, are threatened.

The Death Penalty.

Lebanon, Tenn., June 4.—Jim Baxter (colored) was hanged this morning for killing an aged woman named Lane, last September, for the purpose of robbery.

New Orleans, June 4.—A special from Opelousas, La., to the Times Democrat says: Alfred Taylor, (colored) aged 22, was hanged here this afternoon for assaulting a white woman in February last. He protested his innocence to the last.

A Town Inundated.

El Paso, Tex., June 4—J. C. Smith of this city has just returned from the town of Chamberino in New Mexico fifteen miles above here on the Rio Grande, and reports that the river is pouring through the streets and is seven feet deep on its streets. Thirty houses were destroyed. People only escaped with their lives.

Base Ball.

Washington, June 4—Nationals 1, Detroits 1, thirteen innings.

New York, June 4.—New York 10, Kansas City 2.

Philadelphia, June 4.—St. Louis 1, Philadelphia 2.

Died from a Snake Bite.

Fresno, Cal., June 4.—Olande, the nine-year-old son of Mrs. L. Coughell, of this city, was bitten in the foot by a rattlesnake, yesterday morning, in the foothills where he was visiting, and died in about three hours. Whisky was administered without avail.

Reaplied by Nicaragua.

Colusa, Cal., June 4.—A dispatch was received last night from Governor Stoneman, from the Yosemite, by the attorney of DeWitt, who was to be angel here to-day, granting the condemned man ten days' respite.

WASHINGTON.

The Late Land Office Order Rescinded.

MEN-OF-WAR TO GO TO PORTLAND, ME.

The Senate Passes the Bill to Indemnify the Chinese Sufferers by the Wyoming Riots.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—A circular issued from the Department of the General Land Office to-day, signed by the Commissioner and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, revokes the order issued to registers and receivers on June 2, directing them to receive no filings or new applications for entries under the pre-emption, timber culture and desert-claim laws until August 1, 1886, there being a question as to the legality of the order. The order was issued owing to the unusual number of entries being made in anticipation of a repeal of the laws.

Credit due John Sherman.

A friend of Senator Fair was congratulating him upon the fact that the Senate had passed his (Fair's) Chinese Restriction bill, when the Senator said: "It is true that I was exceedingly anxious for the passage of the measure and did all I could to bring about a successful result, but don't forget Senator John Sherman. In my judgment the people of the Pacific Coast cannot overestimate the service rendered them by the Ohio Senator in the passage of this bill. He contributed invaluable aid."

A Postmaster for a Prison.

John McComb, Jr., has been appointed postmaster at the State's Prison in Sacramento county, Cal.

Ordered Released.

Washington, June 4.—Acting Secretary Fairchild to-day telegraphed as follows to the Collector of Customs at Key West, Fla., in regard to the seizure of the Spanish vessels Pico and Isabella, for alleged violation of the customs laws:

"Release the Spanish schooners Pico and Isabella, unless forfeited under section 4377, and release cargo unless forfeited under section 4377 Revised Statutes. Fishing in the waters of the United States does not entail forfeiture of a foreign vessel."

A Fleet ordered to Portland, Me.—The Secretary of the Navy says that the vessels of the North Atlantic squadron have been under orders for several days to prepare for sea. They will go shortly as a squad and report for further orders at Portland, Me. They will visit the fisheries under instructions from the department, and it is hoped that they will help to allay rather than increase existing antagonism.

51st Congress—First Session.

Senate.

Washington, June 4.—In the Senate Mr. Ingalls offered a resolution, which, on objection of Mr. Beck, went over till to-morrow, calling on the Secretary of the Interior to inform the Senate whether a certain circular had been issued by the Commissioner of the General Land Office with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. The resolution recites in full the recent circular to registers and receivers of land offices, stating that no new applications for entry under the preemption, timber-culture or desert-land acts be received pending legislation by Congress to repeal the acts. The resolution then proceeds to direct the Secretary of the Interior to inform the Senate by what act it was claimed in Congress had delegated to the Commissioner of the General Land Office or to the Secretary of the Interior or to those officers jointly the power to suspend by executive order the operation throughout the United States of the pre-emption, timber-culture and desert-land acts, and to deny to citizens of the United States their rights under said acts.

The Chinese indemnity bill was placed before the Senate, and Mr. Cockrell took the floor. He argued strongly against the bill. The basis on which the Secretary of State and the President have recommended the claims covered by this bill, was solely that of pity for the Chinaman, and not because there was the slightest legal or other obligation existing in the premises.

At the conclusion of Mr. Cockrell's speech the bill was brought to a vote and passed—yeas, 30; nays, 10.

The Senators voting in the negative were: Messrs. Beck, Berry, Cockrell, Colquitt, George, Harris, Maxey, Mitchell of Oregon, and Vest.

The bill authorizes the President to ascertain the actual losses sustained by Chinamen by the riot at Rock Springs, Wyoming, September 1885, and to pay such losses. The amount appropriated by the bill for that purpose is $150,000.

Apaches Still Raiding.

Tombstone, A. T., June 4.—News is received here that the Apaches raided Hay Superintendent of schools for the year from July 1st.

On motion the acceptance of plans was deferred until Tuesday night, and the Board adjourned until that date.

A Serious Jury.

Biella, the six year-old son of Mrs. Bumiller, who resides on Olive street, fell down a flight of stairs last Thursday morning. She was dead fully bruised, and remained unconscious until 7 o'clock in the evening. Dr Widney was called, and did all in his power for the little sufferer, but treatment was very difficult, as the exact nature of the injuries could not be ascertained. After recovering consciousness the child remained without the power of speech.

M. H. DE YOUNG.

The Chronicle Man's Impressions of Los Angeles.

As already noted by the Times, M. H. de Young, editor and proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle, is taking in the beauties of this southern country, accompanied by his wife. Since their arrival, the middle of the week, Mr. and Mrs. de Young have been enjoying a whirl of pleasurable sight-seeing. They start this morning for Riverside, where they will pass the day. It is probable that they will return this evening and put in to-morrow in an inspection of the rich Santa Ana valley and the port of San Pedro, going north by Monday noon's train.

A Times reporter found Mr. de Young at the Pico, yesterday afternoon, on the eve of another drive through the suburbs. A short, heavily-built but agile man in the thirties, his physique bespoke unusual vitality and his face the tireless energy which has accomplished in a few years such remarkable results for himself and his paper.

To the reporter's —?—?—? Mr. de Young said: "Yes, this is my first sight of Los Angeles in a good while, and the only real visit I ever made it. They have been at me for a long time to take a tour of the southern part of the State, but I have been so busy that the visit has been hitherto neglected. But the other day I made up my mind to come down anyhow and pass a week seeing the country. Our business manager has been telegraphing me to come home and close up some transactions, but they'll have to wait, for this week shall not be infringed upon.

"I have not been here since 1880. I came down then on the train when the connecting link between this city and San Francisco was laid, and got a peep at the town for a day or two. I am astonished at the growth and progress your place has made since then. It is fast putting on city habits and appearances. Its street-cars, its handsome business blocks, its fine residences upon your hills, the life on the streets—all are surprising. You need some fine public buildings to give the city a metropolitan air. Yes, I have been told that some are to be erected where that schoolhouse is. That will be a great addition. There is evidently a great deal of enterprise here. Is that electric road a bona fide thing? I had supposed it was a real-estate scheme.

"We took a drive, yesterday, through that superb San Gabriel valley. It is a wonderful country, and has wonderful possibilities before it. That Pasadena is becoming a fine town—you'll have to look out or she'll be a rival, one of these days."

"What do you think of the proposition to divide the State, Mr. De Young?"

"Bosh! It's a very foolish idea. What do you want—more taxes? What are you going to get out of it except some more offices? At present you have to pay only a small portion of the expense of running the State government, but then you would have to pay it all—and you would find it a pretty heavy load. Besides, if you cut off the northern portion of the State, you would find you were not quite so big as you feel. California is a great State, and is understood as a whole in the East. When we speak of the great resources of California, the imports, the crops, the fruits, the mines, we mean the whole State. You would rank a mighty small without the big north end of the State."

Here Mr. De Young's carriage arrived, and with a smiling remark that he reckoned he'd have to cure down here to start a newspaper, he was off.

Prohibition Meeting.

A Temperance Address by a Candidate for a State Office.

Prof. F. E. Kelloog of Goleta, Prohibition candidate for Secretary of State, addressed a number of Prohibitionists, at Good Templars' Hall, last evening. He opened by stating some of the arguments which are used by the non-Prohibitionists in favor of the free-liquor traffic, and read a letter from a German who objected to voting for prohibition, because that would force men to do the work now performed by females, and would prevent them from spending their wages in saloons. The speaker then quoted arguments for his own side of the question. He said that there are only two parties in politics to-day—the Republican and Democratic wings of the great whisky party and the Prohibition party. That neither of the old organizations can now control the Prohibition issue because both have espoused the whisky interest, and that, if any political party is to succeed, it must avoid having no heart in it and their support of it would be useless.

The speaker thought that it became then the duty of every voter to cast his ballot against the liquor traffic, which he stigmatized as the root of all our troubles, both State and national. Mr. Kellogg said that the voter who votes for the old whisky parties is accountable for a share in every crime, every murder, every atrocity that occurs under the administration which sanctions the monstrous traffic.

A new set of officers was elected for the next six months and resulted as follows: J. H. Blanchard, President; C. C. Dunn, Vice President; W. D. Gould, Secretary, and E. K. Green, Treasurer.

The elective officers, with Rev. C. W. Terry and J. H. Rush, were appointed an Executive Committee to organize and advance the temperance work.

A Glaring Evil.

The Saturnalian Cyprians—Why Should It Be Thusly?

Chief Davis says he has no power to make the lewd women of New High street close their doors and windows. They are licensed cigar dealers, every one of them; licensed by the city at the rate of a dollar a month, to display half a hundred cigars in a box and two packs of cigarettes, which they never expect to sell and never do sell. Because of their respectable position as retail tobacco dealers, they can leave their doors and windows open to the gaze of public, as much as they please, with their suggestive selves as tobacco signs in the middle. The time was, and not so long ago, when they had to keep their windows and doors closed; when soliciting was punishable. Then they were occasionally run in and fined when they got too frisky. But it seems that the more ordinances are passed, the more legislation affecting them is enacted, the more powerful the police become in preventing the evil from getting too glaring. The police say that by a license to deal in tobacco should be granted single women, except upon the favorable recommendation of the Commissioners. If such were the case, cyprians would be denied that privilege and their doors and windows could be closed. It is time that something that is something were done.

WANT THE SPOTTER.

How a Fresh A. and P. Official Got Himself Disliked.

Barstow, Cal., June 3.—To the Editor of the Times—Sir: We, the citizens of Barstow, would respectfully ask you to publish in your worthy paper the following: We wish to state that a reward of $50 will be given to the spotter Taylor, of the California Southern Railroad, who came so near killing Mr. Gould at Barstow some days since. If he will come to Barstow the reward will be paid to him by applying to the citizens of Barstow.

By the Citizens.

[The inwardness of this yearning for the society of Mr. Taylor is as follows: Wm. Taylor is a "spotter" who has caused the discharge of a good many railroaders recently; some for good cause, and some, it is claimed, unjustly and through personal spite. Last Sunday night, Taylor was sitting in one of the cars at Barstow, when the night-watchman entered for a drink of water. Taylor abusingly ordered him out. The watchman said he was going to get his drink. Taylor then drew a revolver and was going to shoot him. The railroaders around the station were pretty hot, and thirty determined men poured into the car. Taylor was relieved of two revolvers and a huge knife, and then the crowd looked for a rope wherewith to hang him. The fellow appealed to Conductor Sam Tuttle, who just then appeared upon the scene. Sam quieted the mob and smuggled Taylor away. Taylor will be examined next week on a charge of attempting to murder the night-watchman. Had it not been for Tuttle's coolness, Taylor would probably now be spotting in a warmer climate than even the Mojave.—Rep. Times.]

FIRE BUGS.

A Handsome Reward for Their Conviction.

The Board of Fire Underwriters of San Francisco, are offering a reward of $500 for the arrest within six months, and the conviction of the parties, who, on the 14th of May, fired the frame building containing a stock of general merchandise, the property of Peter Allen, at San Gabriel.

A Harsh Teacher.

An irate and indignant paterfamilias called upon Deputy District Attorney Joy yesterday morning. He was accompanied by his eight-year old daughter, whose arm was black and blue. This the father said, was the result of a "schoolmarm's" chastisem nt of the child on Thursday. The Deputy District Attorney advised the father to make a complaint to the City Superintendent of Schools about the matter. Names are suppressed for the present.

Blaine's Home Rule Speech has the Effect

OF TWISTING THE BRITISH LION'S TAIL.

Scotland in Favor of Home Government—A Missing Man—The Cholera at Florence and Venice.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

London, June 4.—Lord Salisbury in the House of Lords this afternoon severely criticised Mr. Blaine for his Portland speech, and John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, because of his attack on the same utterances attributed to the Marquis which Mr. Blaine denounced. Lord Salisbury said that he must denounce the language used by Mr. Blaine, "who is canvassing for the exalted position of the Presidency of the United States." He complained that Mr. Blaine misquoted him in reference to his utterances respecting Irish immigration, and concluded: "It used to be admitted that assisting people to emigrate from a country where employment is scarce and wages low to another country where they can improve their condition, was doing a beneficent act. There was nothing in my suggestion approaching insult to the Irish people. I do not mind Mr. Blaine abusing me if that will improve his prospects, but I do hope that in future he will quote me correctly."

Referring to that portion of Mr. Morley's speech last evening in the House of Commons, which contained the statement that Lord Salisbury advocated twenty years of coercion in Ireland," his lordship said that he must demur to Mr. Morley's quotation. He had never said that he favored twenty years of coercion in Ireland. The object of his speech was to show that the application of the word coercion to the measures which his Government had recommended for Ireland was unsuitable and improper Coercion meant legislation restraining liberty, and directed against political disaffection. He had never recommended legislation in either direction He desired to legislate in the direction of liberty, and to defend the innocent among the population of Ireland against the unlawful acts of criminal societies. That had never, until now, been called coercion.

The Earl of Kimberly, Colonial Secretary, replied to Lord Salisbury, and said that he thought the language used by the Marquis was justly capable of the construction put upon it by both Mr. Blaine and Mr. Morley.

Gladstone explains his position.

Mr. Gladstone, replying to a letter from Mr. Bolton, Liberal member for North St. Pancras, writes as follows:

"I hold it to be indisputable, indeed, elementary, that voting on the second reading of the Home Rule bill affirms only the principle of the establishment of an Irish legislative body to transact business concerning purely Irish affairs as distinct from imperial affairs. The government consider and hold themselves free to accept any proposals which may be submitted to them previous to the autumn session consistent with the five main conditions which they consider essential to the solution of the question, including Irish representation without any reduction, to take part in the discussion and settlement of imperial business. The government are not only at liberty, but they are in duty bound to consider any such amendments."

A Missing Man.

The agent of the Associated Press, interviewed Mr. Nourse, father of Frederick Russell Nourse, Treasurer of the Oregon Improvement and Navigation Company, who mysteriously disappeared on the night of March 1st, last, as he was about to start for Liverpool to take a position with the firm. Mr. Nourse said he still knows nothing of the missing man's whereabouts, and does no believe he has been found either dead or alive.

Evidently Afraid of Blaine.

London, June 4.—The Fall Mall Gazette, commenting on Blaine's correction of the report of his political speech, says: "It is quite in accordance with Blaine's character to hurl insults and then retract them. Blaine is a public man whose support is almost a discredit. He is now posing to gain a new nomination of the Republican party to the presidency. If he succeeds it is pretty safe to say that America will repeat the rebuff it gave him two years ago."

Scotland Wants Home Rule.

Glasgow, June 4.—The Highland Reform League, at a meeting last night, adopted resolutions favoring home rule for Scotland and the establishment of a separate local legislature.

Cholera at Venice and Florence.

Rome, June 4.—At Venice to day there were reported thirty-two new cases of cholera and twenty-one deaths. Two cases were reported at Florence.

A Siege on Buena Vista.

There was war between France and Mexico yesterday morning on Buena Vista street, between Virgin and High. A native of France had rented a house and moved in a carload of furniture. When he came back with the balance he found his stuff on the sidewalk, with the door barricaded and an enemy in the fort. He called Officer Houston to the rescue, who rang out a fine call for a posse for a parley. The enemy was found to be a Mexican senhora, armed with an ax, who said that she was in charge of the fortor die. Houston then decided to remain neutral, and the besieging party went to look for a warrant.

Cable Roads.

The telegraph brought a brief account, a few days ago, of the consolidation of the several cable railway companies of San Francisco. This has an important bearing on all of the cable roads of the country, quieting title, so to speak, to the numerous conflicting patent rights under which they have been operated hitherto. The history of the several patent rights is briefly told by the San Francisco Bulletin as follows:

"The cable railway system was originally patented in 1873 by A. S. Hallidie. The first cable railway constructed was that on Clay street, in 1875, owing to several improvements in Mr. Hallidie's patents having been place, a corporation was organized to purchase and protect them. It was called the Traction Railway Company, and in it the inventor of the system held a considerable interest. In 1877, owing to sall further encroachments on the rights of the patent-holders, suits were instituted and judgments obtained against the Geary Street and Sutter Street Cable Companies. Then another corporation was formed, which succeeded to all the rights of the Traction Railway Company, and was incorporated under the title of the Cable Railway Company. In 1883 the Market Street Cable Company was formed and it became the possessor of various independent patents, including that of Henry Root. This was the last company formed with patent rights, and owing to the number of patents existing, and their great similarity to each other, numerous expensive lawsuits were developed. This, of course, seriously hampered the construction of new cable roads, as corporations about to build were slow to purchase the patent rights from either company, fearing to become involved in costly legal suits with the one whose patent they had not bought. To end all this is the object of the new incorporation. It is expected that the formation of the new company will give a great impetus to the construction of new cable roads throughout the country."

The newly organized Pacific Cable Railway company has a capital stock of $2 000,000, divided into 20,000 shares. The directors are: Leland Stanford, A. S. Hallidie, Charles F. Crocker, F. F. Low, James Moffitt and J. L. Wilcutt.

Mr. Brown, Superintendent of Construction for the Los Angeles cable roads, who returned from San Francisco yesterday, says the consolidation of the herstofore conflicting cable interests has been a great benefit to the Pacific Construction Company, which will continue to operate as licensees of the Pacific Cable Railway Company.

The cable railway is the coming street road of the country, subject, probably, to certain modifications as to electricity for a motor instead of steam. Any movement which tends to facilitate the construction of cable roads is to be hailed with satisfaction.

THE country may expect to hear from Herr Most again as soon as he gets loose from the grip of the law. He is one of those dull brained fellows that experience don't teach anything, and who is so utterly unable to understand anything of the spirit of our republican institutions, that in the face of the just discipline he is receiving, he is ready to declare himself for further outrage and crime as soon as he shall be set at liberty. He is a beautiful interpreter of law, and claims that what ever outrage he may hereafter be guilty of in the name of liberty, he cannot be punished for, as constitutio al law forbids a person being twice punished for the same offence. It is well that the doughty Anarchist will have leisure to think this matter over in the quiet of his prison cell, and he may possibly be able to see clear enough to discover that, while the crime which he proposes to commit after he gets out of prison may be of the same nature as that for which he is imprisoned, it is distinctively a different offence. As says the Washington Star: "There is only one continuing offence which occurs to mind at the moment, of which the Anarchist leader has been persistently guilty. That is the offence of existence. It is a serious wrong to the community that suffers from it; but, in the present state of the law, there does not appear to be any way of punishing it till the example of the Chicago grand jury becomes a recognized precedent.

THE latest factor in the problem of cheapening and reducing the labor of housekeeping in large cities as well as the furnishing of power comes in the form of the distribution of steam and hot water to consumers. At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco, a few days ago, the petition of P. T. Dickinson, David McKay and W. W. Spaulding for a franchise to lay pipes underground throughout the city for the purpose of furnishing steam and hot water to houses came up for discussion. P. T. Dickinson appeared before the board and spoke for some time on the project. In the East, he said, steam was now conveyed nine miles through underground pipes with a loss of only 7 per cent. in power. Nearly all kinds of domestic cooking can be done by the power furnished from the pipes when there are only two pounds pressure of steam. Nearly all food is also cooked much quicker than by the present method. Pipes are now being laid in Chicago. The cooking expenses of a small family will be reduced fully one-half by the new system. Power will be furnished from the pipes for all purposes.

IT makes us realize what a big country this is when Eastern papers come to us, day by day, bearing us tidings that a week or two ago were flashed to us over the wires that extend across the continent. It's a mighty big farm that Uncle Sam can lay claim to.

AMONG her many charming climatic attractions Pennsylvania boasts of an able snow storm on the 27th of May. Go and be snowed up with the country.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

SIERRA MADRE.

TALK OF A NEW ROAD. A LIBRARY BUILDING, AND A CHANGE OF NAME

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SIERRA MADRE, June 3.—A meeting of the citizens of this place was held at the school-house, Tuesday, June 1st. Mr. Wilson was elected chairman and Dr. Gresham secretary. Mr. Wilson made a short opening address, and then proceeded to state the objects for which the meeting was called. First was a petition to the County Supervisors, praying for a new road district, which was signed by nearly, if not all, the gentlemen present. The second object of the meeting was the proposition to erect a proper building for a library, reading-room, and public hall. This matter was discussed at considerable length, and referred to a committee of five persons to take under advisement and put into practical shape. The next proposition was to put up signboards at proper places, for directing travelers to this place without confounding it with Sierra Madre Villa.

This last proposition led to quite a spirited discussion as to the advisability of changing the name of this place to Santa Anita. A vote being taken, a majority of those present were in favor of the change of name. A committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Baldwin and see if there were any objections from that quarter, after which the meeting adjourned subject to call of said committee.

Foggy nights and cool days.

Letters from Mrs. C. E. Cook, who left here for her old home in Auburn, Maine, after an absence of eight years, state that she arrived safely, but not very sound, on the 21st of May.

The latest victim of the "un-American" boycott in this burg, is W. S. Andrews. The boy was born May 29.

There is one lady at least in this place who believes in "woman's rights" and practices what she preaches. Mrs. C. B. Jones teaches in one of the departments of our public school, superintends a fruit ranch of twenty acres, and for recreation has built up at the same time a nice trade in the manufacture of fine orange marmalade. "Go to the ant thou sluggard and be wise."

Mr. Hosmer is raising a large crop of corn at El Monte this season. He expects to supply the whole country 'round-about.

W. A. Spalding and C. E. Cook are having their young orange nurseries budded.

Mrs. Lockart is making improvements on her four-acre lot on Grand View avenue.

R. C. Carter started Thursday last for Lowell, Mass.

The rails are laid within a few rods of Baldwin's avenue. "Let all the people make a joyful noise."

Apricot buyers are as thick as peas in the pod, and as polite as a book agent—cause why? As a short crop and they want to buy, you know.

J. F. Cook, of Florence, (correspondent of the TIMES) accompanied by his wife, made a short visit to Sierra Madre, returning home yesterday. B. B.

SAN GABRIEL—ALHAMBRA.

A BUNCH OF FIFTY PARAGRAPHS.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SAN GABRIEL, June 3.—Miss Stoneman has closed her school definitely.

It is stated that Mr. McCann has purchased Dr. Shoemaker's orange-packing business at San Gabriel.

S. Richardson recently bought "Willow Dale," Capt. Ellis's ranch.

C. E. English lately returned to Toronto for the summer.

Alhambra has commutation tickets on the S. P. R. R.

San Gabriel's new depot is to be of some architectural pretensions, so "they say."

The sale of "Sunny Slope" has agitated real estate here. Several large sales are "on the string."

"Dot" Weeks is convalescing after a long illness.

A post mortem on the Sans Souci will soon be in order.

Garfield avenue boulevard scheme is progressing all right.

D. F. Walters has recovered from his last pet evil.

Baldwin's imported labor from "Ole Soul Charlie" still seek the seclusion which the Mission grants.

The San Gabriel correspondent of the Pasadena Star had better "look a leetle outs."

Almost as many tourists to be seen now as last winter.

Alhambra has a "soft snap" for the first hotel man that comes.

The average price received this season for oranges is higher than for some years past. Losses from rotting were confined almost to the tail end of the season, except for some unfortunate orchardists who confidingly shipped their crops through an amateur agent. Col. Dobbins and A. B. Chapman are about the only growers who have fruit now, their Rivna Late being in good condition now.

Grape men do not look so downcast as last year. Twenty dollars for Mission, and foreign grapes in proportion is said to be the prospect now. The sale of Sunny Slope must affect the grapers' interests, either for better or worse, which, as yet cannot be told.

ANAHEIM.

AFTER A LOAN FOR THE WATER SYSTEM—FOR CHARITY'S SAKE.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

ANAHEIM, June 2.—The vexed question of assessments of water stock, which has created some loud talk at the meetings of the Anaheim Union Water Company and on the streets lately, has now, it is believed, been settled to the satisfaction of all parties. It was decided at the last meeting to send an agent to San Francisco to arrange for the loan of a large sum of money at a reasonable rate of interest, which had been off-red on certain conditions. Such of the stock-holders as are unable or unwilling at this time to pay the assessments thought necessary, will secure their payment by individual note and mortgage—prior mortgage, if any, being raised—and the money obtained will be expended in building new ditches and a reservoir. If no further hitch occurs, there ought to be, before the deluge, an era of prosperity and good feeling.

For sweet charity's sake a few kind-hearted young people presented at Krong Ir's Hall last Friday evening a little drama entitled Down By the Sea, which was supplemented by ice cream and dancing. It resulted all round in a very enjoyable evening, and netted about $100 for the poor family for whose benefit the entertainment was gotten up. A few of the players, most notably Miss Maud Northam, showed not a little genuine histrionic talent.

Rev. M. O. McNiff, of this place, a popular clergyman and an old soldier, delivered the Memorial Day address at Santa Ana; and in the evening a poem, contributed by one of our lawyers, was read. The day was not observed with any exercises here.

There is a great scarcity of wood in town, and much grumbling at the price—$10 a cord for green oak. If someone should invent a way of cooking "taters" by the sun's rays, what would we find to kick about then, I wonder?

SMILES.

Coming to grief—meeting trouble half way.

Sleight-of-hand—refusing a marriage offer.

A plumber insists that this is the drain-age.

Where there is a will there is a way—to contest it.

Somebody asks: "What should a soldier write about?" Right about face, of course.

A thieves' dictionary has just been published. It is a work of abstract knowledge.

Why is the money the boy obtains from his father like the reflection of the orb of day? It is the son's raise.

Possibly the reason the eight-hour workers failed was because they only worked eight hours a day at it.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Alderman Gleason, of Long Island City, has resigned in order to get married, his intended refusing to be married so long as he was a member of the Board.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution (Dem.) says that "Attorney General Garland has been before the Pan-Electric Investigating Committee again, and is as deep in the mire as ever."

Hon. R. S. Spofford, a full-sized Democrat, declares that "the attitude of the Administration, especially of the Department of State, toward our fishing interests has been one of inexcusable indifference and neglect."

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph takes a vigorous interest in the campaign now in progress in that State, but it means to be magnanimous. "Our opposition to Gen. Gordon," says the Telegraph, "will be open and fair. We shall publish no wood-cuts of him."

A contemporary, which is trying to show that the Senate is an extravagant body, asserts that the Blair Educational bill which the Senate passed proposes an annual expenditure of $80 000,000. The $80 000,000 included ten annual expenditures—a slight difference.

Thirty-one of the fifty-seven parishes of Louisiana, paying $338,962 of the $522 899 of taxation imposed on them, contain a majority of colored voters. To prevent these voters having any participation in local affairs, the officers known as police jurors, who control local administration, have been selected by the Governor from the white residents.

THE GREATEST

Real Estate Sale of the Season!

Subdivision of the celebrated Cooperative Nursery Tract. Grand sale of 483 beautiful residence lots, each 50 feet front, including 15 extra large size corner prize lots, on South Main street, near Jefferson, at $250 each, on easy instalments, without interest. With these lots are included ten beautiful and expensive cottages, four mast electric lights, ample and heavy bank sidewalks in front of every lot, 14-year-old seedling orange trees; also bearing grapevines—all of which improvements are free to subscribers. Books for subscription will be open on and after Thursday, April 29, at J. M. BATCHELOR & CO.'S, Real Estate, Auctioneers, 236 North Main street, Baker Block.

The owner of this property respectfully refers to His Honor Mayor Spence, President of First Nation l Bank; President John E. Plater, of Los Angeles County Bank; President Geo. H. Bonebrake, of Los Angeles National Bank.

A very unusual opportunity to obtain a lovely home in the most beautiful southern suburb of Los Angeles.

Four hundred and eighty-two lots for sale on terms within the reach of any one wishing a home of their own at less rates than house rent can be obtained.

Over one-half of these lots contain 14 year-old seedling orange trees—not common oranges, remember. A few lots of this section afford a good family living. One-third of these lots are covered with the three best varieties of bearing grape vines. All but a small portion of the remainder is in 11-year-old full bearing seedling orange trees.

This estate, sightly and well situated, noted for the care it has always had, with high, level ground, way above the possible overflow, is the gem of the city.

The scenery in every direction is of great extent and beauty. Situated 2½ miles south of the Postoffice, on the chief thoroughfare of Los Angeles, directly in a line with the heavy or more valuable business growth of the city. No other street contains such valuable property. This fact is most important and should be remembered by those looking for future rise of values. But ten minutes' drive north of this site, on the same street, lots of same size sell for $2000 each.

TERMS—Cash; or, $50 cash, $15 in 1 month, $15 in 2 months, $10 in 3 months and every month thereafter until $250 is paid.

Subscriptions will be received at above rates direct by the owner, whose responsibility is of the highest class.

A meeting of all subscribers will be held on or about July 31, 1886, for the purpose of selecting the lots subscribed for. At this meeting a committee of three will be appointed by the subscribers. The name of every subscriber will then be read aloud from a written slips of paper, which will then be placed in a suitable box from which, when all the names are placed therein, will be drawn by the committee, one name at a time. The name, when read aloud, permits its owner to select the best lot from the entire number unchosen.

A deed will then be made out, and the subscriber can take immediate possession. The deed to remain in the owner's hands until the full $250, the price of the lot, shall be paid. To give every subscriber a fair chance, one name is entitled to select not more than one lot containing a dwelling house, nor is one name entitled to select more than one-half the lots that name subscribes for either on New Main or San Pedro streets, except in case of two lots only in one name. These dwellings are to be beautiful in design, well built, and strictly first class in every respect; complete in all appointments, and ready for occupancy without any additional expense. Their cost of construction is a comparatively large figure. Plans and designs may be seen at our office, J. M. BATCHELOR & CO., Real Estate, Auctioneers, 236 N. Main street, where the subscriptions are now received. Maps to be had and every information on application.

The Main street horse-car line has already arranged to go to the corner of Main and Jefferson streets, within five minutes' walk of the tract, and will be extended to pass the tract on demand of a sufficient number of new residents.

A second horse-car line is projected to pass within a block of the entire east side of the tract, which extends nearly one mile on San Pedro street. Also the main line of Col. Howland's Electric Railroad will run either past the entire tract on San Pedro street or within a parallel block, on its way out of the city. The Santa Monica Railroad has now a flag station within five minutes' walk of the tract, so there will be no lack of conveyance to and from the center of the city. The water on the ground is of the best quality. It can be tested at the laborers' house on San Pedro side of the estate. Water will be piped from the city mains as soon as there is a sufficient demand.

The property lies close by the University of Southern California, affording a first-class education for the young, within easy walking distance.

Teams leave Baker Block daily, including Sundays, at 9:30 a. m., 12:30 p. m. and 3 p. m. Fare 5 cents.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES,
LOS ANGELES, Friday, June 4.

The Grain market is lower. Trading in Wheat is very quiet. Advices from San Francisco report that the free manner in which the new crop of Barley is coming to market unsettles values for feed descriptions, and the asking prices were again lower to-day, most sales being at 85@90c. The Brewing qualities, however, continue steady.

How to dispose of this season's immense Wheat crop is a problem that is beginning to puzzle both producers and shippers. There is some expectation that Australia may require some of it, but how much cannot be predicted. Australia is a wheat country, and the fact that in portions of it the crop is poor, and that in consequence supplies must be drawn from other sources, does not of necessity promise large requisitions on the California crop. The falling off of the yield in Australia may help prices here, by bringing to this coast orders from Europe that otherwise would have been filled there, but unless the shrinkage is remarkably great, and extends far beyond the surplus usually exported, the demand for Pacific coast Wheat for consumption in Australia can hardly be very large. That there is some demand, however, is evidenced by the fact that already one cargo of 32,000 centals California is on the way to Sydney, having sailed May 24, and an order for 60,000 centals has been filled for the Mariposa, which sails to-morrow from San Francisco. The latest mails from Australia, too, bring inquiries for California Wheat, and it is thought that some orders also were brought.

Grain Bags continue firm, the asking price in this city to-day being 9¼ for spot.

The coinage of the San Francisco Mint for the month of May was $1,950,000 in gold.

Gooseberries are now offered to San Francisco canners at 1¼ cents per pound.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Government bonds dull, steady.

Stocks opened firm, but later there was an announcement of a reduction in Sterling Exchange rates, and this started an upward movement, although little attention was paid to the reduction in the price of silver. Prices suffered a slight set back, but after 11 o'clock the market was taken hold of again, and another active advance in prices moved up steadily until the last hour, the highest prices being reached in the neighborhood of 2 p. m. There was afterwards a decline of small fractions, but the market closed firm at near the best figures of the day.

HORSES, MORE HORSES.

Square Auction Sale, Saturday, June 6,

At 11 o'clock a. m., at Preston's Corral, corner Requena and Wilmington sts.

Twenty head more of those beautiful horses from the pastures of Marcus A. Foster. The twenty head sold on Saturday last are giving perfect satisfaction, particularly those purchased by the Messrs. Whipple & Stimson, and are "hooking up the new horse-breaking wonder, Mr. Roberts; he took two of them on Saturday, May 29th, and on Monday, May 31st, drove both of them in single harness all through our streets. Now we propose to sell all lovers of a good, sound, young horse, weighing from 900 to 1000 p unds, and realizing Shakespeare's description as near as possible, viz.:

Round-hoofed, short-jointed, fetlock shag and long;
Broad breast, full eye, small head and nostril wide;
High crest, short ears, straight legs and passing strong;
Thin mane thick tail, broad buttock, tender hide.

Look what a horse should have he did not lack;
Save a proud rider on so proud a back.

To come and see our horses. We promise to show the finest lot of young horses we have had to this city, and will sell them for less money than such horses can be bought for anywhere from Maine to Alaska.

The New Directory of Los Angeles.

HOW THE CITY LOOMS UP IN ITS PAGES.

A Large, Complete and Valuable Work—How the Book is Arranged, and What It Contains.

The new Directory, upon which such long, patient and quiet work has been done, is practically finished, and will begin to be delivered next week. It is the most complete and creditable directory of Los Angeles city and county ever issued, and will be found valuable in many ways. The book is a large octavo of 825 pages, artistically made up and handsomely printed—a matter of course, since it comes from the TIMES MIRROR printing establishment and bindery, all except the embossing of the cover, which was done by Bancroft & Co., San Francisco. The type is clear, handsome, and "easy on the eyes," but not of the unworkmanlike poster fashion which has been seen in some directories.

The arrangement of the work is convenient and new. There are 325 pages of matter before the names begin. This space includes a pithy "Picture of the city and county as they are to-day;" 16 pages on the "Schools of Los Angeles;" copies of a church directory; a six-page directory of the 63 societies, lodges, etc.; 10 pages of useful directions as to the streets; 3 pages on the street railroads, with their officers, routes, etc.; rosters of the municipal officers and the police and fire forces, fire department; a full description of the electric lighting system; the irrigation system; municipal improvements; the city parks; the county officers and their residences; a roster of all the courts and the residences of the judges and officers; a sketch of the 28 newspapers; the manufacturing interests and facilities; a sketch of each of the 59 hotels, restaurants, etc.; and special sketches of classified business houses.

The city directory proper covers 252 pages solid. It contains 10,500 names, which, at an estimate of 4 persons to each name—a modest figure—would give Los Angeles a population of 42,000. Abarta, a Spaniard, comes first in the book; and Zuecker, a German, brings up the tail of the procession. As in every directory, the names form a curious study, and the funny man turned loose among them would be in clover for a week. There are 3 Abbotts and one Mosher, but nary nun. Three Adams have not so much as 1 live, but an Appel is left them. There are 4 Aikens, 1 Painen and 4 Payne. It is discouraging to learn that but 4 Angels are smart; but there is 1 Alieg who should probably be counted with them. In all the Angel City there is but 1 Angel. Five good Bacons off-set 1 Badham and 3 presumably good Hamms Twenty-five Bakers and 13 Cooks is a good proportion to 1 Brewer. The eternal sunshine of the g. c. very properly admits of but 1 Cloud. There are but 2 Blanks in our lottery, and but 1 Platt among our business men. There are 3 Eld-rs, 14 Youngs and 1 Olds. There are 3 Fishes, 1 Bream 1 Perch and 1 Pike. Six Boals make a liberal allowance for 2 Pitchers. For 1 House there are 5 Barnes and 21 Halls. For 1 Bishop the proclivities are shown in 5 Gambles, 2 Basters, 2 Benders and 3 already Bent. There are 5 Birds, 2 Crows, 3 Finches and but 1 Dager. In spite of the alleged boastfulness of the modern Garden of Eden, the city has but 1 Bragg, and in all our glowing statements there is but 1 Boseh. Dogs do not count in the directory; but Barkers, Bayers and Rohrers do, to the extent of 2, 3 and 2 respectively. There are 48 Whites, 12 Grays, 72 Browns, 6 Blacks, 2 Bluetts, 20 Greens and 1 Brunett. There are 9 Burns and 2 already Char. There are 4 Almonds, 1 Peanut, 3 Beeches, 3 Frenches, 2 Germans, 1 Rose, and 1 Britton. Five Bacrs, 6 Foxes and 1 Lion are among the animals. There are 1 Chaplin, 1 Chaplain and 2 Parsons; 2 Grands, 2 Littles, 3 Smalls. Only one Christian as a rather poor showing for a city of 42,000 people, but it is comforting to know that there are no Pagans. The numerous families include 56 Johnsons, 36 Joosens, 19 Thomasons, 18 Thompsons, 37 Millers, 18 Robinsons, 19 Scotts, 87 Smiths, 49 Wilsons, 18 Martins, 31 Williamses, 22 Wrights, 36 Moores, 25 Taylors, 43 Clarks, etc. Among the odd names are 4 that are Off, 1 Ends, 2 Greens, 3 Goads, 1 Frail, 1 Dolly, 1 Craw, 1 Chew, several Lins and Lings, 4 Ohoguills, 2 Bumlu, a Buelna, a Bojorgues, a Bialp, a Bumbesaller, a Czerwinsky, three Boschards, a Baldy, a Brait, and so on for quantity.

The classified business directory of the city takes up 30 pages of finer type. It mentions 2 mercantile agencies, 12 dealers in agricultural implements, 18 architects, 9 artificial stone companies, 19 artists, 117 attorneys and law firms, 7 auctioneers, 21 bakeries, 7 banks, 70 blacksmiths, 3 binderies, 7 book and stationery stores, 15 boot and shoe stores, 37 boot and shoe makers, 2 bottling companies, 9 box manufactories, 3 breweries, 30 brick masons, 7 brick yards, 3 bridge builders, 1 broom factory, 11 cabinet making establishments, 369 carpenters and builders, 82 contractors and builders, 20 carriage makers, 10 carriage trimmers, 8 carriage repositories, 9 cement and stone works, 58 cigar and tobacco dealers, 6 cigar manufactories, 17 civil engineers, 12 dye houses, 16 clothing houses, 13 coffee, tea and spice houses, 25 commission men, 19 confectioners, 7 crockery firms, 25 dentists, 79 dressmaking establishments, 27 drug stores, 8 dry goods houses, 2 electric works, 7 employment offices, 3 express, 8 express and transfer companies, 11 feed stores, 5 fish and poultry dealers, 9 florists, 2 flouring mills, 6 foundries, 30 fruit firms, 93 furniture dealers, 17 furnishing stores, 110 groceries, 6 gun stores, 72 hair-dressers, 1 bill posting firm, 22 hardware firms, 28 harness making establishments, 25 hotels, 6 house-movers, 3 ice companies, 27 insurance firms, 6 dealers in Chinese and Japanese goods, 3 job-printing establishments, 21 white laundries, 2 libraries, 4 wholesale liquor dealers, 31 livery stables, 3 lockers, 3 lodging houses, 10 lumber firms, 10 marble works, 46 meat-markets, 15 merchant tailors, 14 millinery establishments, 5 music stores, 30 music teachers, 9 newspapers, 5 optician, 139 painters, 13 paper hangers, 1 firm of patent solicitors, 4 pawnbrokers, 17 photographic galleries, 102 physicians, 5 pianomakers, 2 picture-frame manufactories, 37 plasterers, 36 plumbers, 3 pork-packing establishments, 6 poultry dealers, 1 printers' supply firm, 213 real-estate firms, 43 restaurants, etc.

The county directory covers 212 pages, and gives a generous sketch of each town and hamlet, with notice of its improvements, principal business houses, churches, societies, papers, industries, etc., in as concise instructive and valuable fashion. There are also sketches of numerous points of interest throughout the county.

The new directory bristles with good points, and will doubtless be favorably received by Byron & Co., the publishers, have been pegging away diligently at it for the last five months; part of the time employing 14 men on the work How well they have carried out their arduous undertaking the book will, in a few days, tell for itself.

Success of the City Center Tract.

The rapid sale of these lots proves the admirable policy of the Southern California Land Company. Without a tract is well located and the price placed at the lowest figure, nothing can induce them to take hold of an enterprise, no matter how high the commission.

PASADENA.

Action of the School Board—A New Trustee — Registration Notes — A Blazing Response.

PASADENA, June 4.—The trustees of the San Pasqual school district met last night, and decided to at once have the old school building moved to the new school house lot on the corner of Marengo avenue and Walnut street, as it may be needed for school purposes before the new school building is ready for occupancy. It was also ordered that sealed bids for the construction of the new school building be advertised for; all bids to be opened on the 21st inst., each bid to be accompanied by a certified check of $1500; conditioned that a contract with good bonds will be entered into, if bid is accepted. It was further ordered that the building be completed by the first day of November. The plans and specifications are ready for inspection at the office of their architect, W. B. Stewart, 44½ South Spring, street, room 7, Los Angeles.

A NEW TICKET.

A second ticket for officers of the new city, to be voted for June 7th, has been quietly formulated, and is as follows:

For Trustees, E. C. Webster, M. M. Parker, L. N. Hill, Thos. Farlow and E. Turner; Clerk, C. A. Sawtelle; Treasurer, W. C. Cooley; City Marshal, I. N. Mundell.

All the candidates on this ticket are the same as the caucus ticket, with the exception of two trustees—E. C. Webster in place of R. Williams, and M. M. Parker in place of James Clark. The contest, therefore, at present appearances, will be between the four last named gentlemen, with faint indications that a third third ticket will be in the field.

PASADENA REGISTRATION.

Up to noon to-day there have been fifty-two new names added to the register from within the proposed corporation limits, with a probability that this number will be considerably increased before election day. The nativity of those registered the past week shows the cosmopolitan character of Pasadena, as follows: Connecticut, 1; Massachusetts, 3; Maryland, 1; Iowa, 3; New York, 7; California, 1; Utah, 1; Illinois, 5; Pennsylvania, 3; Ohio, 4; Indiana, 5; Germany, 3; Tennessee, 1; Nevada, 1; Minnesota, 1; England, 2; New Hampshire, 2; Missouri, 1; Rhode Island, 1; West Virginia, 1.

The Valley Union of to-day contains the following spicy proof that the election on the 7th will be interestingly warm:

"H. C. WEBSTER A CANDIDATE.

Gentlemen and Fellow Citizens: Your flattering communication of the 27th ult., requesting me to be a candidate for General Trustee at the approaching municipal election, has been carefully considered by me. To thank you would but faintly express my sense of appreciation for the honor intended. After due deliberation and a full investigation I have come to the conclusion that the open dissatisfaction expressed with the manner and method by which a portion of the caucus nominations were made, have a just foundation. Fully realizing the relations I sustained to that caucus, I all the more feel it my duty to respond to your invitation; and you may therefore consider me a candidate for the office suggested. You are aware I am no office-seeker, but in common with you, my fellow citizens, I am willing to make sacrifices, if for no other reason than to rebuke all attempts at ring or immoral influences in the administration of our municipal affairs. To lay well the foundations of our growing community is a work which will require not only high motives and firm action on the part of the executive and legislative authority in our new city, but the watchful and active influence of that sound public sentiment which has in the past given Pasadena a desirable reputation. I am willing to trust the results of the election in my case to an intelligent constituency, and will heartily acquiesce in their decision.

Your obedient servant,

E. C. WEBSTER.

Pasadena, June 4.

B. F. Ball and E. Turner returned from Long Beach yesterday, where they have let a contract for the erection of a double seven-room summer cottage.

HOW MAIN STREET LAND

Is Given Away.

Fourteen-year-old seedling orange trees have an auction value; $15 each is an extremely low figure. No farmer would contract to grow them for that sum. It would not begin to pay him for his labor. In fact he would ridicule such an offer. Twelve trees to a 80x170 foot lot at that price would equal $180. The city improvements, such as concrete walk from business center to Fourth st., rail road to main, and only one block from the cable line now being laid; in a fast improving neighborhood, with a beautiful view of the surrounding country and city, and enjoy the fresh breezes from the ocean.

Carriages will leave our office at 1:30 p. m. on day of sale.

For plans and particulars apply to

NORTHCRAFT & CLARK Auctioneers,
246 N. Main st., Baker Block.

AUCTION SALE.

WIESENDANGER TRACT

—OF—

120 Large Size Building LOTS,

On Vermont Avenue, Jefferson Street and Bulling Avenue, near the Urmston Tract.

Fan Palm Avenue

120x80 feet, all planted with fan palms. One of the sights of semi-tropic Los Angeles.

Five Avenues, 60 Feet Wide.

The rapidity of our sales has encouraged the owner to go to the expense of planting all the avenues with fan palms. Go and see them.

A street railroad is to pass the tract on Vermont avenue.

There are handsome mansions and improved places all around.

The Lots Average 50x125

And each has an alley in the rear.

PRICES

The lowest ever heard of, namely,

$165 TO $265 EACH.

Only $30 cash, monthly installments $10.

NO INTEREST TO PAY.

The lots are all perfectly level. No grading is required beyond the grading of streets now being done by the owners. Messrs. Dan McFarland and Theodore Winnenden, the owners of the tract, have the prices of each lot so low that every purchaser will realize that he can double or treble his investment in a few months. Call for particulars, maps, etc., on J. M. Batchelor & Co., managers, 236 N Main st, Baker Block. Open Saturday evenings from 7 to 9:30 o'clock.

The Crowning Success

OF THE SEASON.

One-half the Price of Adjoining Unimproved Property.

THE CITY CENTER TRACT.

151 lots at $200 each. Size of lots 50x125. First payment, $20; monthly payments, $20, without int rest.

Elegant improvements Made by the Company without Cost to the Lot-Holders—four Villa Residences to be Erected and to go with the Lots Without Additional Charge—First-Class Plank Walks on all the Streets—Music, with Electric Lights, Free for One Year—The Distribution of the Lots will be Made on the 4th of October, 1886, on the Same Plan as that of the Child's Tract and the Urmston Tract, Both Inaugurated by this Company Under the Homestead Law.

THIS SPLENDID TRACT is in the very heart of Los Angeles, but one block from Pearl street, and situated on Eleventh, Twelfth and Pico streets, adjoining on the latter street the elegant grounds and mansion of Mrs. Forcsman.

THE HOWLAND ELECTRIC MOTOR RAILWAY is now an assured fact on Pico street; the rails are on way here, and the cars will be running in sixty days.

The price of these lots is exactly one-half of ten cents asked for those adjoining on the east, and which are unimproved.

The success of the Homesteads of the Southern California Land Company is strictly owing to the low rate at which they place their properties before the public, and the fact that they offer only first-class City locations. The high prices asked by middle men for lots are avoided. The Company desire to see the subscribers to these properties gain a handsome profit after the division of the Homesteads.

The sale of this Tract is on the Homestead plan (see Law of 1862), as the Childs Tract and the Urmston Tract. The land is sold as an entirety, and delivered over to the subscribers with all the improvements of villa residences planned sidewalks and electric lights, without further charge than the amount received in the aggregate from the subscribers, each one of whom has a vested right in the entire Tract.

The meeting of the subscribers for the distribution of the lots is fixed for October 4th, 1886.

The proceedings will be in accordance with the agreement recorded in the subscription book to the Tract, and signed by the purchasers.

No narrow streets. All streets and avenues are sixty feet wide.

The Street Railway on Pearl street, corner Pico street, is within one block of the Tract, and in sixty days Colonel Howland's Electric Motor Road will be completed, and cars running on Pico street past this entire property.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA LAND CO.,

No. 163 N. Main street.

LEGAL HOMESTEADS.

The best lawyers in Los Angeles state that the Childs Tract, Urmston Tract and City Center Tract Homesteads conform strictly to the law of the State in making a division of the property among the purchasers—each purchaser holding a vested right in the whole Tract until the meeting for subdivision of interests.

First-Class Property only.

No other than the very best property at the lowest possible prices, can be found on my books. Each property advertised by me is believed to be the very best of the kind that can be had.

$50 across half mile outside city, near Pico street. Equal to any property sold for $400 per acre this year. Price per acre only $200.

160 acres foothill land, most delightfully situated, commanding view of the ocean, the valley and the city; 20 acres grapes, 5 acres orchard, etc. The finest vegetable land in the State. No frost, no irrigation necessary. I have nothing of the kind equal. Terms only $40.

100 acres of very fine land, two miles out side city limits, west, for $100 per acre.

10 acres of the most desirably situated land in Pasadena for $4000. This property is worth $10,000 for subdivision. There is nothing like it at the price.

Nice cottage of four rooms, hall and closets, with two large lots, 60x165 feet, with alley at rear. You must make your own price. Come and see it.
